About the Role:

Are you a teacher with a passion for teaching and learning, looking for an exciting new role?

Severne Primary School is seeking to appoint an energetic and enthusiastic Class Teacher to join our team. We aim to appoint someone who can make a real difference and help secure outstanding outcomes for our children and families.

What we are looking for in our teaching staff – someone who is:

- passionate about teaching at primary level (KS1 and/or KS2),
- committed to a child-led approach to teaching and learning,
- committed to ensuring that all children achieve their very best, able to work in partnership with children, parents, staff, governors, and the wider community,
- able to challenge children to achieve beyond their expectations,
- able to provide stimulating and engaging experiences for all our children and support them in becoming lifelong learners,
- committed to promoting inclusion, equality and celebrating diversity,
- able to deliver effective phonics using the Bug Club program.

Why work at Severne Primary?

- excellent Early Career Teacher's induction programme, a fantastic well-resourced work environment
- we can offer you pupils who are curious, keen, and enthusiastic to learn, a chance to work in a diverse, inclusive, vibrant community, we have an inclusive, nurturing culture and an ethos that recognises the contribution of every member of the school community,
- we have committed, enthusiastic and supportive colleagues who are open to new ideas and strive for excellence through continuous professional dialogue,
- excellent CPD opportunities to ensure professional development
- a commitment to staff well-being.

This is an exciting opportunity, and we look forward to receiving your application.

Visits to the school are available, please email I.dillon@severne.bham.sch.uk to arrange a suitable time.
